General Experience

Jocelyn has wide experience of advising asset managers, financial institutions and other public and private companies and LLPs on corporate and private equity transactions, financings and corporate governance. He specialises in private and public M&A, equity investments and joint ventures. He also has a particular focus on the Healthcare, Life Sciences, Technology and Asset Management sectors (including Real Estate Funds).

Jocelyn is recognised by the Legal 500 UK 2019 legal directory for his expertise in private equity, venture capital, AIM and healthcare transactions (where he is described by people he has worked with as "responsive and solutions-oriented" and having "an excellent knowledge of the healthcare market and the legal and contractual frameworks"). He has also previously been recommended by the Legal 500 UK and Chambers & Partners UK legal directories for corporate/M&A (with particular reference to his work for healthcare & life sciences clients).
