General Experience

Peter is a member of the partnership in our Amsterdam office. He is a tax lawyer who is a specialist in mergers & acquisitions, corporate and business (re) structuring including real estate and IP-structuring and transfer pricing. He also has extensive experience in negotiating Advance Pricing Agreements and Advance Tax Rulings with the Dutch Inland Revenue.

Peter's client base comprises of multinational companies across various sectors. His ability to grasp the wider business issues stems from this wide-ranging experience and is reflected in his client's feedback, who state that he is able to provide deep, thoughtful and strategic tax advice which adopts a business-friendly approach whilst remaining detail-oriented.

Being a member of numerous associations, Peter is extremely well connected and is always on top of regulatory developments. He also uses his experience and expertise to provide professional industry insight, offering regular lectures at national and international conferences and seminars, including the education foundation of the Netherlands Association of Tax Advisors.
